MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This matter is before the Court on the petition of Arizona Hall, Jr., for a writ of habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2254. The petition appears to be untimely. So, the Court will order Petitioner to show cause why it should not be summarily dismissed.

On June 27, 2013, a jury convicted Petitioner of second-degree domestic assault. Missouri v. Hall, No. 0922-CR01820-01 (City of St. Louis). The court sentenced him to ten years' imprisonment. Petitioner is currently on parole.

Petitioner filed a timely notice of appeal. On April 1, 2015, the appellate court affirmed and issued its mandate. Missouri v. Hall, No. ED100615 (Mo. Ct. App.). On April 20, 2015, Petitioner applied for discretionary review by the Missouri Supreme Court. However, the Clerk of Court for the Missouri Court of Appeals for the Eastern District returned the application to Petitioner because it was not timely filed.

Petitioner did not file a motion for postconviction relief under Rule 29.15 of the Missouri Court Rules.

On January 5, 2016, Petitioner filed a petition for writ of error coram nobis in the Missouri Supreme Court. State ex rel. Hall v. Cohen, No. SC95457 (Mo. S.Ct.). The court denied the petition without comment on March 1, 2016.

Petitioner filed the instant petition on September 21, 2016, which is the date he placed in the prison mail system.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d)(1), a petitioner has one year from the date his judgment of conviction becomes final within which to file a petition for writ of habeas corpus. Where, as here, a Missouri petitioner does not properly seek transfer to the Missouri Supreme Court after direct appeal, his judgment becomes final upon expiration of the time within which to seek such discretionary review, that is, fifteen days after the court of appeals issues its opinion. See Gonzalez v. Thaler, ___ U.S. ___, 132 S. Ct. 641 (2012); Mo. S. Ct. R. 83.02. Accordingly, Petitioner's judgment of conviction became final on April 16, 2015.

"The time during which a properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review with respect to the pertinent judgment or claim is pending shall not be counted toward any period of limitation under this subsection." 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d)(2).

The petition for writ of coram nobis Petitioner filed in the Missouri Supreme Court did not toll the statute of limitations because it is not a "properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review" in Missouri. A total of 524 days passed between the date the judgment became final, April 16, 2015, and the date he filed the instant petition. So, it appears that the petition is untimely.

Even if the petition for writ of error coram nobis were a properly filed application for postconviction relief, the petition would still be untimely. A total of fifty-seven days elapsed between January 5, 2016, and March 1, 2016. So, the petition would still be untimely by 102 days.

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Petitioner must show cause, no later than twenty-one (21) days from the date of this Order, why his petition should not be dismissed as time-barred.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if Petitioner fails to respond to this Order, the Court will dismiss this action without further proceedings.

Dated this 10th day of November, 2016.
